WHAT IS AN APPRENTICESHIP?

- Apprenticeships are a combination of working and studying. An apprentice is an employee, working alongside experienced staff gaining job-specific skills.
- An apprenticeship is for anyone aged 16+.
- They range from Level 2 to Level 7.
- There are over 800 apprenticeship standards approved for delivery

Apprenticeship Levels explained:

Level 2 - (Intermediate Apprenticeship) - Equivalent to 5 GCSE's 4 - 9

Level 3 - (Advanced Apprenticeship) - Equivalent to 2 A-Level's

Level 4 & 5 - (Higher Apprenticeship) - Equivalent to Foundation Degree

Level 6 - (Higher Degree Apprenticeship) - Equivalent to a full Degree

Level 7 - (Higher Degree Apprenticeship) - Equivalent to a full Masters Degree

Apprenticeship standards:

There are currently over 800 apprenticeship standards, these can all be found on the IFATE website:

www.instituteforapprenticeships

Wage:

How much you earn will depend on the industry, location, and level of apprenticeship you choose. Currently National Minimum Wage for an apprentice is £5.28 (correct as of April 2023) which will be increasing to £6.40 in April 2024. This is just a minimum, sometimes an employer may wish to pay more than this. Please note that if you are 19+ the apprentice wage will be reviewed and increase in the second year of your apprenticeship in accordance to National Living Wage. For further information, visit: <https://www.gov.uk/national-minimum-wage-rates>.

Visit www.entitledto.co.uk/ to find out more about the benefits you would be entitled to.

Working hours:

Apprentices are paid to do a full-time job, to comply with legislation, an apprentice's working week should be between 30 - 40 hours a week of combined work and study. Included in these working hours will be 6 hours of paid off the job training. Working hours can be adjusted if you require additional support which can be discussed with the employer and training provider.

PARTICIPANT SUPPORT

- If you are 16+ and would like support with progressing with an apprenticeship you can complete our Participant Referral Form and return to apprenticeships@suffolk.gov.uk or scan the QR code.
